COLUMBUS:
PRINTED BY C. S. GLENN, GAZETTE PRINTING HOUSE.
1875.
NOTICE.

It again becomes our pleasant duty, to offer to our friends and the public, our annual Catalogue of Green House and Bedding Plants, with thanks for past favors, and a determination that no effort shall be wanting on our part, to please them in the future.

During the past season we have added considerably to our assortment, and have largely increased our facilities for propagating, consequently our stock of plants is larger than ever before, and more varied. It will be noticed that in many cases the prices have been considerably reduced. By our careful manner of packing we are able to send plants, etc., to all parts of the United States with perfect safety.

The list we offer embraces such Plants, etc., as have been tested and found valuable, and which we are confident will please those who receive them.

ORDER EARLY.

Except in cases of urgency, orders are executed in rotation as received. We, therefore, respectfully invite our friends to anticipate the planting time, by sending their orders early.

SEND MONEY WITH THE ORDER.

Orders from unknown correspondents must invariably be accompanied by a remittance or satisfactory reference. It will save much trouble, and insure immediate attention in all cases when money accompanies the order.

Money may be sent at our risk only when P. O. Money Order or Draft is obtained, or the letter is registered, or currency is sent by express.

It will facilitate the dispatch of business, if with each order, the name and address are written distinctly and in full: also direct by what conveyance the articles may be sent. When left to us we will use our best judgment; but in all cases the goods are at the risk of purchasers after delivery at the Express office or Railroad.

It will be to the interest of purchasers, where they are not acquainted with varieties, to leave selection to us, as we can, in such cases, very often send better plants.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION.

Is invited to our list of Roses. Our stock this season is large and of fine quality, and we are confident will give entire satisfaction.

Special Collection of Plants, on page 78 is also worthy of notice, affording a large and fine assortment of plants at a very reasonable rate.

A liberal commission allowed to those who interest themselves to obtain orders for us.

No charge for packing Plants will be made on orders amounting to Five Dollars and upwards.

The Nursery and Green Houses are on South High street, a short distance from the terminus of the Street Railroad. Our grounds, during the season of leaves and flowers, are very attractive, and, at any time, worthy a visit from the lovers of Horticulture and Floriculture. Open to visitors from 8 A. M. until 6 P. M., except Sundays.

NEW ORLEANS La., July 22, 1874.
Acknowledgement of gratification for fine selection of plants, and thanks for the full and running over measure which you gave, has been delayed in order to fully test the reliability of your perfect manner of packing. I am happy to say that of 30 plants received, 29 are now in full, vigorous growth. I enclose another order.

It is my pleasure to assure you of the gratification the filing of my order in the spring gave. The plants, with few exceptions, were the largest I ever received from any florist, and I can now say they have all done admirably, giving perfect satisfaction.

ASHLA'D. Wis., Aug 15, 1874.
Roses reached me after an eight days' trip, for we are quite beyond the civilized world, and are eighty miles from a railroad. They enjoyed their overland trip and are doing nicely. The Gladiolus are the finest I ever saw; the flowers are immense, and the stems fairly bend under their weight of blossoms.

CALVERT, Texas, S-p. 88, 1874.
Plants arrived in good time and in excellent order.

Plants arrived in good order, looking green and fresh, as they always do from your place.
THE ROSE.

ROSES A SPECIALTY — Growing Roses on a large scale, we are enabled to offer this season, a very large and fine assortment of healthy plants, all grown on their own roots, without exception.

"The Queen of Flowers" is indispensable to every flower garden; and now, that so varied and beautiful a display can be had of roses alone, throughout the entire season, it is no wonder that their popularity is so great, and the desire to possess a good assortment so universal.

The Rose, in all varieties, must have a deep, well drained and well enriched soil. Before planting, trench twenty inches deep and incorporate liberally of old, well-rotted manure. Prune freely, especially the free-growing kinds, in order to secure a supply of young wood.

To the lovers of this beautiful flower, who are willing to take a little extra trouble to protect their plants in winter, for the sake of having a continuous bloom from early summer till late autumn, we recommend the planting of the half-hardy class, viz.: Bourbon, Tea, Noisette and China. These will almost invariably prove more satisfactory than the more hardy ones, blooming more freely, and being very fragrant.

A very simple and easy method to protect them over winter in this latitude, is to lay the plant down on, or just below the surface of the ground, and then cover with soil to the depth of four or six inches, as far as it is desired to preserve the wood, and particularly around the base of the plant, forming a small ridge or mound, which should be removed, and the plant raised, at the approach of spring. This plan of wintering roses is much to be preferred to annually taking them up as the plants grow much more vigorously and bloom more abundantly. Any one may, with a proper selection of varieties, and fair treatment, have an abundance of fine rosebuds the entire season.

In the Southern States very little care will be required, in most cases none, as most of them will do well without protection.

The following list embraces most of the really desirable Roses of each class, and sufficient to afford abundant variety to every collection.

The prices named are for plants of usual size; an additional charge is made for extra size plants.

Persons unacquainted with the different varieties will do well to leave the selection to us. In such cases we can usually send fine, strong plants, and do better for our customers than when confined to particular sorts.

NE W PLANTS
— A N D —
Plants of Special Interest.

Abutilon— Boule de Neige.
This very attractive novelty was only introduced the past season. It is of compact, branching growth, with dark green foliage, and large, pure white bell-shaped flowers, which are produced freely throughout the summer in the garden, or in the conservatory in winter. Price 50 cents each. Ready 1st of March.

Lobelia— Pumila Grandiflora Flora Plena.
This is announced as the greatest acquisition of the season. The flowers are full and very double, of a light blue, resembling in color the Neapolitan Violet. The plant is of compact growth, and blooms freely. Price 50 cents each; ready 1st of March.

Gynerium— Giganteum and Roseum.
Two new varieties of Pampas Grass, imported from France by us the past season. Giganteum is said to be of strong growth, with plumes resembling G. Argenteum. Roseum is also of similar habit, with fine rose-colored plumes, and very attractive. Price for strong plants $2 each.

Deutzia— Candidissima Plena.
Another new plant from France. It is a hardy shrub, of strong growth, much like Deutzia Črenata, but with pure white, double flowers. A great addition to our list of hardy shrubs. Price 50 cents each.

Begonia— Weltoniensis Alba.
B. Weltoniensis was admired by all when first introduced, a few years since. The one now offered is a new variety, grown from it, which resembles it in every respect, except color of blossoms, which are delicate pink on the old variety, while on the new they are pure white. Price 50 cents each.

Begonia— Smaragdina.
This is a magnificent variety of the ornamental leaved class, having rich green foliage, resembling velvet in appearance. Price 25 cents each.

Begonia— Alba Perfecta Grandiflora.
Another beautiful flowering Begonia, in the style of the well-known B. Dregii, but of more robust habit, and larger foliage. Flowers pure white, blooming freely during the summer and fall; a very desirable plant. Price 50 cents each.
Hydrangea— Japonica Variegata.

Although this is not a new plant, it is very scarce. It is one of the most attractive pot plants for shady positions. The leaves are beautifully variegated, green and white, some leaves being nearly, or entirely white. Having imported a large quantity from Europe, we are able to offer them this season at a very reasonable price. Price, small plants, 25 cents each; large plants, 75 cents each.

---

Bouvardia—The Bride.

A delicate pink flowering variety, which forms a pleasing contrast, when grown with the pure white and brilliant scarlet varieties. Price 25 cents each.

---

New Variegated Lantana—Mine d'Or.

A new variety of Lantana, with white spotted foliage, and scarlet and orange colored flowers. Price 50 cents each. Ready 1st of March.

---

Libonia—Penrhosiensis.

A useful, decorative plant for the green house, producing its fine showy, bright orange and crimson flowers, in the middle of winter. It is of easy culture, and blooms profusely. Price 30 cents each. Ready 1st of March.

---

New Double Geraniums.

These new varieties were offered for the first time last season, but the price kept them from general introduction. They are novel and desirable, and we are able to offer them this year at a reasonable rate.

- Aline Sisley—Double, pure white, good habit, bright zone, fine truss, short-jointed, and profuse bloomer.
- Asa Gray—Flowers large, very double, faint zone, color: salmon-pink, edged with white.
- Charles Lyell—Firm, stocky growth, foliage nearly plain green, flowers very double, of an apricot color, bordered with pure white.

Price 50 cents each.

---

Pink Margined Geranium—Marginata.

This is a most distinct variety, with each petal and flower distinctly lined or edged round with pink, on a pearly white ground, and if kept slightly shaded in hot weather, its color and markings are very striking, and when in good condition, is one of the best additions to the zonals we have had for some time. Price 50 cents each.

---

Dwarf Tuberose—"Pearl."

The individual flowers are much larger than the common variety; desirable for pot culture and forcing, as a bouquet flower. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

---

Trycyrtis Grandiflora.

The flowers of this beautiful hardy herbaceous plant resemble in their formation and markings some species of orchids. The ground color of the flower is lilac, marbled with white, borne on spikes six inches long. The flowers have a fragrance similar to the heliotrope, which, with their blooming during October and November, causes them to be much in demand by the bouquet makers. Price 50 cents each.
New Double White Violet—Princess Louise.

Fine double white, very fragrant, and said to be much superior to the old double white. Price 35 cents each.

Campanula Grandiflora—Wahlenbergia.

A fine hardy herbaceous plant, growing about 18 inches high, with pretty blue, bell-shaped flowers, about one and a half inches in diameter—very showy and desirable. Price 30 cents each.

New Double White Oleander.

A new variety of this well known favorite plant, from the West Indies, and as yet very scarce. The flowers are not as large as those of the single white, but are double, having a slight yellowish tint. Young plants, Price $1 each. Ready 1st of April.

New Coleus.

Acis—Scarlet crimson, narrow golden edge.

Brilliant—Deep purple centre, shading off to light purple towards the edge, with a broad belt of light green.

Lady Burrell—Rich bronzy crimson, with narrow green edging.

Sunbeam—Deep crimson, with purple veins, and broad golden edge.

Sylph—One of the darkest of the golden section; rich crimson, shaded with purple, golden margin.

Prince of Prussia—Bright velvety crimson, narrow golden edge; one of the best new Coleus; very showy.

Velvet Mantle—Very deep crimson purple, dark green edge.

Price 25 cents each; the entire set for $1.50.

Phloxes.

The following are new varieties of hardy Phloxes, imported from Europe the past season. They are very desirable:

Antoinette Lee—White, with purplish maroon centre; very fine.

Coccinea—Bright carmine; crimson centre; extra.

Coquette du Parc—Pure white; with rosy purple centre; beautiful.

Didon—Rosy maroon; crimson centre; extra fine.

Doctor Carnot—White with pink centre; large flowers.

Eugenie Inner—White, with pink centre.

General Bosak—Rosy carmine, dark centre.

Madame Duchatel—Pure white, rose centre; splendid.

Mad. Dumesnil—White, with maroon eye.

Mad. de Vatimesnil—White, tinged with pink; light maroon centre.

Price 35 cents each; $3 per dozen.

New Dwarf Pomegranate.

A dwarf variety which blooms while quite young. The flowers are large and of the most brilliant orange scarlet. The plant will in time attain a height of 4 to 6 feet, blooming throughout the latter part of summer. It is nearly hardy and may be left out in sections where the thermometer does not fall to 15° below freezing. In colder latitudes it can be kept in cellar over winter without difficulty. Strong plants. Price 50 cents each.
Double Scarlet Pomegranate.
This variety has large flowers, about three inches in diameter, and as double as a rose. It requires no more care than the preceding, and will grow as large as an Oleander. It does not bloom until several years old. Price 50 cents each; small plants 25 cents each.

Double Violet—Marie Louise.
The sweetest and most beautiful Double Violet in cultivation; the flowers are of large size, a rich dark blue with light centre, produced abundantly. Price 25 cents each.
New Cannas.

Below we offer some of the best of the later introductions of this section of ornamental plants, and we can assure our patrons that these Cannas are, without exception, of the highest order of merit, and very attractive plants, the flowers being nearly double the size of the old varieties, the foliage of peculiar shape, and in some varieties the coloring very rich. They should not be planted out until quite warm weather in spring, and they thrive best in light, deep, rich soil. The root should be set six or eight inches under ground, thus enabling it to get a better start than if planted just under the surface. The Canna needs plenty of heat and an abundance of water. Price 35 cents each, except where noted.

Auguste Ferrier—Very large leaves, shaped like those of the Banana—not pointed. Foliage rich, dark green, shaded at the edges with maroon. It grows seven to eight feet high, and blooms very late.

Bihorelli—Rich bronzy purple, shaded with green, crimson flowers.

Bihorelli floribunda—Foliage green, shaded with bronzy purple; flowers large, bright crimson, with orange tint; blossoms early and abundantly.

Daniel Hoeghrend—Foliage medium size, the leaves tapering to a sharp point, light green, with bronze edges; flowers orange, tinted with salmon, large and abundant. It grows five to six feet high.

Discolor—Foliage large, beautifully veined with purple.

Jean Vaudael—Foliage light green, very compact; crimson red flowers, of large size, and produced in abundance, on numerous spikes, rising well above the foliage. Grows about five feet high.

Marechal Vaillant—Dark bronze foliage, heavily shaded and striped with brownish purple; leaves pointed; 3 feet long and 8 to 10 inches broad; flowers large, orange color, grows seven feet high. Extra fine. Price 50 cents each.

Ne Plus Ultra—Very fine, with large foliage of the richest shade of bronzy purple, and brilliant crimson flowers.

Premices de Nice—Sea-green foliage, medium size; a very free bloomer; flowering early in June; flowers large, of a clear canary yellow.

Tricolor—The foliage of this fine variety is profusely striped, with yellow, green and rosy pink; very distinct and beautiful.

New Double Geranium—Le Progress.

Foliage glossy green, with good zone, producing an abundance of magenta-colored, perfect rose-shaped blossoms, which are suffused with purple. A decided acquisition to the list of Double Geraniums. Price 35 cents each.

New Double Geranium—Le Negre.

Umbels from 4 to 6 inches in diameter, flowers medium size, very full, perfect in shape, with rich maroon-colored imbricated petals, which are of a dark wine red color on the reverse side. A fine variety and very distinct in color, from any other yet known to us. Price 35 cents each.

New Double Geranium—Le Venquier.

Trusses of large size, individual flowers, finely formed and very double, of a light cherry color, the back of the petals being a light pink. Before they are fully expanded, the trusses have a lively silvery pink appearance. Price 35 cents each.
New Striped Zonale Geranium—Elsternixe.
Flowers salmon scarlet, distinctly striped with white; the best of the striped varieties. Price 40 cents each.

New Striped Zonale Geranium—Tricolorum.
A very peculiar variety; flowers pale rose and salmon, with a green stripe through each petal. Price 40 cents each.

Gnaphalium—Lanatum Variegata.
This plant has the same downy appearance as the old G.—Lanatum, but the leaves are more oblong, and each leaf has a broad margin of light golden yellow, filling about two-thirds of the entire leaf, while the centre portion is a very delicate green, modified by the slight downy covering. The plant is of low spreading habit, and as it stands the hottest sun well, is very suitable for vases or the edging of beds. Price 20 cents each.
Salvia Splendens—Compacta Alba.
This is a white variety of the well known Scarlet Salvia. The plant is more compact in growth, and the flowers are white, sometimes having scarlet stripes, or one entire half of flower being scarlet, giving the plant a very striking and pretty appearance; planted with the scarlet variety, it makes a fine contrast. Price 20 cents each.

Golden Edged Thyme.
A beautiful little hardy plant, with small round leaves of a deep glossy green, with bright golden edge, and pleasantly fragrant—appropriate for baskets, vases, or margin of flower beds. Price 20 cents each.

Silver Edged Thyme.
Similar to preceding, with silver edge. Price 20 cents each.

White Oleander.
The old pink variety has been a general favorite for many years, and this is a desirable companion for it: of the same strong growth and habit, with semi-double pure white flowers. It is of easy culture, and can be kept over winter in a cellar, even without any light. Price 25 cents each; large plants, 50 cents each.

* Yellow Oleander—Lutea.
A new and comparatively scarce variety, with light straw colored blossoms. A strong growing variety, and very desirable. Price 75 cents each.

* Scarlet Oleander—Atrosanguinea.
A variety with large semi-double scarlet flowers, very showy and pretty, contrasting well with the white and yellow varieties. Price 75 cents each.

Lysimachia Numularia Aurea.
A new golden-leaved variety of the well-known Ladies’ Wreath, of the same drooping habit, well adapted for baskets and vases, contrasting nicely with the green-leaved variety. Price 25 cents each.

Achyranthus—Caseii.
A splendid new variety of golden-variegated Achyranthus—the bright golden variegation is the same as in A—. Reticulata, but the foliage is much larger and more perfect, being heart-shaped, pointed and perfectly smooth. A very desirable acquisition. Price 20 cents each.

Achyranthus—Mrs. J. J. Harvey.
Another new improved variety of Achyranthus. It is a sport from A—. Gilsonii but much better in every respect, as there is no curl in the leaf, and of brighter color; foliage, bright crimson; stems, bright pink; dwarf habit. Price 20 cents each.
Abutilon Vexillarium Pictum.
This is similar in habit and growth to the well-known Mesopotamicum, but much more attractive for its golden-spotted and marbled foliage, making it a fine plant for vases and large baskets; also useful as a winter blooming and decorative plant. Price 25 cents each.

Begonia—Weltoniensis.
A new and exceedingly fine, shrubby variety, with small leaves of a delicate shade of green; stems and leaf stocks bright crimson; blossoms waxy pink, are produced freely in summer and autumn; like all Begonias, it requires a shady position. Price 25 cents each.

Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora.
A highly ornamental shrub, with very large dense flower heads, opening pure white and tinted with rose in their mature bloom; it blooms profusely during the summer months, and is perfectly hardy. Price 30 to 50 cents each.

Sanchezia Nobilis Variegata.
One of the most distinct and showy of the foliage plants; the leaves are about 12 inches long and 5 inches wide, of a rich glossy green, while the middle ribs and veins are of the most brilliant golden yellow; the effect is striking; it does best in a shady place. Price 40 cents each.
Vinca Harrisonii.

A new seedling of very distinct and novel form. It is a strong grower, throwing out an abundance of vigorous pink-stained shoots—a strong plant produces thirty to fifty runners, 3 to 6 feet long, with an abundance of light blue star-shaped flowers in spring. Margin of leaves dark green, central portion marbled distinctly with light yellowish green. A very desirable plant for vases, hanging baskets, or rock-work. Price 25 cents each.

Lagerstroemia Indica Alba—White Crape Myrtle.

This has been a great desideratum with all lovers of plants, for years. With its pure white flowers, it will be a good companion for the pink and crimson varieties, which bloom so abundantly in late summer and fall. Price, fine young plants, 25 cents; large plants, 75 cents each.

Lagerstroemia Indica Rubra—Crimson Crape Myrtle.

A great improvement on the old pink variety; the blossoms, which have a very peculiar shape, looking as if cut out of fine crape or silk, are of a bright deep crimson, and are produced quite freely after the plant gets to be of some size. Price, fine young plants, 25 cents each; large plants 75 cents each.

Lagerstroemia Indica Rosea—Pink Crape Myrtle.

Resembling the above in every respect, except color of blossom, which is bright pink. Price, fine young plants, 25 cents each; large plants 50 cents each.

Crassula Perfoliata.

A succulent plant of easy culture, well suited for the parlor or conservatory in winter; it grows about six inches high, with thick fleshy leaves, and about Christmas puts forth three or four spikes on which are hundreds of small pure white star-shaped flowers, which remain in perfection quite a long time. Price 25 cents each.

Begonia—Digswelliana.

A new, charming and very free blooming variety. The flowers are light pink with dark edges, and in contrast with the deep rich color of the young buds, make a fine appearance. Price 25 cents each.

Achyrocline Saundersonii.

An elegant little plant of dwarf habit and compact growth, about six inches high, with small silvery white foliage, suitable for edging with Lobelia, Alteranthera, etc., or for baskets and vases. Price 25 cents each.

Phlox—Tricolor.

A new hardy Phlox of dwarf habit, with green and pure white variegated foliage, frequently pink tinted; quite a pretty and interesting plant. Price 40 cents each.

Panicum Plicatum Vittatum.

A fine ornamental grass, with beautiful plaited foliage, of graceful drooping form. It grows about three feet high, with leaves about three inches broad, which are striped with silvery white through the centre and along the edge. Price 25 cents each.
Begonia Glaucocephylla Scandens.

A beautiful half-climbing variety, having large panicles of orange, salmon-colored flowers, produced during the winter months. A very fine plant for hanging baskets in winter. Price 25 cents each.
Bouvardia Jasminoides.

A lovely variety of Bouvardia, of dwarf, free branching habit, and easy culture. It grows about 12 inches high, and produces numerous trusses of pure white wax-like flowers, which resemble the Jasmine, both in appearance and fragrance. It is equally valuable for bedding in the garden in summer, and for winter blooming in the conservatory. Price, strong plants, 50 cents each.

Bouvardia Davisonii.

The flowers of this beautiful Bouvardia are produced in large clusters of pure white, slightly tinted with delicate blush, before being fully expanded. It is valued as a bedding plant for the garden, where it will commence blooming in August, and continue until frost; or, as a winter-blooming plant for the conservatory and parlor, where it will bloom without interruption all winter, if taken up before cold weather and properly cared for. Price 25 cents each.

Veronica—Blue Gem.

An elegant variety of shrubby Veronica, of a remarkably dense and dwarf habit of growth; grows 6 to 9 inches high, with small box-like leaves, and bright mauve colored flower spikes, which are produced in succession through the latter summer months. Price 25 cents each.

Cestrum Parqui—Night Blooming Jasmine.

A plant of strong, shrubby growth, with deep green glossy leaves, and small greenish white blossoms, with a delightful odor, which is dispensed freely during the night only; a favorite plant of easy cultivation. Price 25 cents each.

Golden-Leafed Geranium—Luna.

Among the Bronze or Golden-Leafed Geraniums, this is the best which we as yet have tested. The foliage is of a light-golden yellow, with a broad and distinct zone, or horse-shoe, of a bright chestnut brown occasionally shaded with red; flowers bright scarlet; unlike most variegated-leafed Geraniums, this variety stands the hot sun quite well, and keeps its marking all summer. Price 25 cents each.

Jasminium Grandiflorum.

A beautiful white Jasmine, of exquisite fragrance; the flowers are produced in great profusion, blooming at least six months out of the twelve; it is of neat, bushy growth, and a very desirable plant for the parlor or conservatory. Price 25 to 50 cents each.

Cocolobia Platiclada.

A plant of very singular and interesting growth; stems and branches growing in flat and broad joints, of a half drooping habit; well suited for vases, baskets and rustic work; of easy culture. Price 25 cents each.

Acalypha Tricolor.

A very singular plant with variegated foliage, introduced from New Caledonia. Its large leaves are irregularly mottled and blotched with deep crimson and bright red; novel and attractive. Price 25 to 50 cents each.
Papaver Pulcherima—Oriental Poppy.

A hardy herbaceous plant, of great beauty; in June it produces large blossoms of the most intense fiery scarlet, at which time it is one of the most conspicuous and attractive plants in the garden. Price 25 cents each.

Arundo Donax Variegata.

Among the many variegated foliage plants that we offer this season, there is none that we can recommend more highly for out of door planting than this splendid reed; the longer we grow it the better we are satisfied with its good qualities for decorative purposes; it grows from six to eight feet high, with leaves from one and a half to two feet in length, which are striped or ribboned in about equal parts, with pure white and light green, which variegation is retained all the summer; when planted in deep, rich soil, and well supplied with water during the growing season, the growth will be luxuriant; it is a first-class plant in every respect, and an excellent companion plant for Cannas, Caladiums, or other ornamental plants; it can be left out in winter, by mulching with leaves or straw. Price 50 cents each.
Eranthemum

A pretty species of the well known Madeira Vine, but of half shrubby growth, with no tendency to climb; the leaves are fleshy green and white variegated. It stands the hot dry weather well, and is suitable for baskets and vases. Price 25 cents each.

Eranthemum Sanguinolentum.

This charming little plant is well adapted for vases and baskets in partial shade. It has deep green leaves in pairs, about 3 inches long, veined all through with brilliant crimson; a very interesting plant. Price 30 cents each.

Yucca Fillamentosa.

A very showy evergreen plant, perfectly hardy, thriving in any good garden soil, foliage twelve to eighteen inches long, resembles the palm or aloe; flower stems attain the height of five or six feet, covered nearly the entire length with bell-shaped creamy-white flowers; in bloom a long time. Price, strong flowering plants, 50 cents each.

Peristrophe Angustifolio Aureo.

An elegant foliage plant equally useful for vases and baskets, in partial shade; leaves brilliant golden yellow, margined with bright green, about three inches long and one and a half wide; of low, bushy habit, producing flowers late in the season, of a mauve or light violet color; one of the gems of the season. Price 25 cents each.

Reineckia Carnea Fol. Var.

A dwarf growing plant, of elegant appearance. The peculiar growth, with striking variegation, pure white and green, renders it desirable for pot culture or hanging baskets. Price 25 cents each.

Tradescantia Vittata Repens.

A new and very striking variety of the well-known Wandering Jew, growth and habit the same as the old sort, but the leaves are beautifully striped, green and white, some of them with one entire half pure white; a very desirable plant for baskets and vases in shady situations. Price 25 cents each.

Ampelopsis Veitchii.

A miniature foliaged Virginia Creeper, which clings to any building with the tenacity of the strongest Ivy, and producing in great profusion its dense foliage, of a glossy green, shaded with purple, so thickly as to form the most perfect coating wherever it is planted, the young shoots being quite purple. The leaves are sometimes divided into three parts, and are sometimes entire, turning red in autumn, similar to the old kind. Price, small plants, 25 cents; large plants, 50 cents each.

Poinsetta—Pulcherima.

A tropical plant of gorgeous beauty, the leaves that surround the flowers being on well-grown specimens, one foot in diameter, of the most dazzling scarlet. In a hot-house temperature of 60 degrees it begins to bloom in November, and remains expanded until January. Price 50 cents each.
Cyperus Papyrus or Antiquorous.

The old Egyptian paper plant, very scarce, and undoubtedly one of the best decorative plants for bizarre effect. The above engraving gives but a faint idea of its great ornamental character. A well-grown specimen will send up thirty or more straight, triangular shaped stalks, five to six feet high, each covered with a large tuft of bright green filaments, ten to twelve inches in length, and the mass twelve to eighteen inches in diameter, forming a plant of striking appearance. As the plant is at home on the shores of the Nile, it should be well supplied with water to grow it to perfection. It can also be planted in fountains and water basins, but must be taken up and kept in the house in winter. Price $1 each.
Salvia—Splendens.
One of the most gorgeous of all our summer flowers, blooming abundantly throughout the season in dense spikes of brilliant scarlet. Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Salvia—Splendens Gordonii.
This differs from the old variety in being more dwarf, with dense flower spikes of brilliant scarlet, but is not so free a bloomer. Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Salvia—Patens.
Well suited to contrast with the above, the flowers being of the richest shade of blue. Price 30 cents each.

Peperomia Maculosa.
This beautiful ornamental plant is a native of Brazil; the leaves, which are of a wax-like character, are of great substance, with bright green veins, the intervening space being white, giving the impression of burnished silver; it is of very easy culture, and will prove a very useful plant for rustic baskets and vases in shady positions. Price 25 cents each.

Peperomia Resedafiora.
A new variety, with dark green foliage, producing very delicate white flowers on pyramidal branching spikes, about one foot high; very neat, and slightly fragrant; suitable for hanging and rustic baskets and wardian cases. Price 25 cents each.

Panicum Variegatum.
This beautiful variegated grass proves to be one of the most graceful and ornamental plants yet introduced for rustic baskets, vases, etc. The ground color of the leaf is bright green, fully one-half being occupied by pure white stripes, tinged with pink, forming a striking contrast. It is of free growth and graceful habit, drooping two or three feet from a basket, in as many months. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Santolina Tomentosa.
A plant with fine, neat foliage of silver hue, bears sun and heat well, and can be cut or pinched into any shape desired; fine for edging, or baskets and vases. Price 20 cents each.

Ivy-Leafed Geranium—Innocence.
A plant with pretty ivy-shaped leaves, of a deep glossy green and dark marking, with pure white blossoms; of trailing habit, well suited for baskets and vases. Price 25 cents each.

Variegated Ivy Geranium—Duke of Edinburg. (Holly Wreath.)
This beautiful variegated Ivy Geranium has a broad margin of yellowish white, and sometimes light green around each leaf, the ground color being a bright green; it is a strong grower, of drooping habit, and the foliage quite large, making it a very desirable plant for all kinds of rustic work, baskets and vases. Price 30 cents each.
Sedum Telephium Roseum.

A splendid new variety of the Sedum tribe, hardy, grows about one foot high, flowers in large umbels from six to eight inches in diameter; in flower from August to November, or if taken up and potted the flowers last longer yet. Price 20 cents each.

Cyperus Alternifolius.

A plant of peculiar formation. It produces many smooth, erect growing stems, about two feet high, which are crowned with a bunch of long, narrow leaves, giving it a close resemblance to an umbrella, for which reason it is frequently called the Umbrella Plant; it is desirable for garden decoration, and will also succeed well when grown in water. Price 50 cents each.
Achyranthus Aurea Reticulata.

The leaves are of a light green, beautifully marked with a network of golden yellow, with occasionally crimson blotches, while the stem is of a purplish carmine, making a pleasing contrast; suitable for the centre of baskets and vases, and planting out in beds. Price 20 cents each.

Achyranthus Gilsonii.

This is an improvement on the well-known A. Verschaffeltii, being of a much brighter crimson color, and more dwarf and bu-hy in habit; a really showy and effective plant of the easiest culture. Price 20 cents each.

Achyranthus Cordata.

Similar in habit and color to A.—Gilsonii, but with heart-shaped leaves. Price 20 cents each.

Achryanthus Lindenii.

Foliage very striking and effective; of a rich dark red color; each leaf having a conspicuous amaranth mid-rib. It is admirably adapted either for ribbon rows, or the edging of flower beds; its rich and attractive foliage, always producing a striking effect. Price 20 cents each.

Euphorbia Jacquiniflora.

A well known hot-house plant, flowering in mid-winter, and from its wreathed style of flowering it is much used in holiday decorations; flowers orange scarlet. Price 25 to 50 cents each.
Erianthus Ravennæ.

A very handsome ornamental grass, and a desirable plant for the lawn, somewhat resembling the Pampas Grass, but not as regular, and more loose in its outline; when fully grown, which will be the second or third year, its numerous flower stems will attain a height of from 9 to 12 feet. Will live out over winter without protection. Price 25 cents each; extra size, plants 50 cents each.

Funkia Alba Odora—White Day Lily.

A herbaceous plant of great beauty; it grows about a foot high, with luxuriant yellowish green foliage of large size, and produces in June and July, large pure white flowers of a delicious odor; it thrives best in partial shade, and although perfectly hardy, is much benefited by being slightly protected with leaves or litter in winter. Price 50 cents each.

Hoya Carnosa—Wax Plant.

A climbing plant for house culture, with dark green thick leaves, bearing exquisite wax-like flowers. Price 25 cents each; large plants, 50 cents each.

Fittonia or Gymnostachium.

This genus is among the most beautifully veined and reticulated of plants; in summer they are quite easily cultivated, only requiring shade and moisture, to develop their beauty; they are of low, half-trailing habit, and do well in baskets and rustic stands.

Argyroneura—Leaves bright green, with veins of the purest silvery shining white, shown in bold relief. Price 40 cents each.

Verschaffellii—Foliage somewhat larger than the foregoing, of deep green, with veins varying from red to rich pink. Price 40 cents each.

Double Feverfew.

A well-known double white daisy-like flower; flowering in the summer months. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Torrenia Asiatica.

A pretty plant for hanging baskets in sheltered and shady situations; it has tube shaped flowers about an inch long, of a rich shade of purple. Price 25 cents each.

Madeira, or Mignonette Vine.

One of the finest plants for rapidly covering trellis work; flowers feathery white, with fragrance of Mignonette. Price 20 cents each.

Echeveria.

The Echeverias are a class of plants with thick, fleshy leaves, introduced from Mexico; they are of a rich and very peculiar appearance, of various colors and hues; like all succulent plants, they are well suited for rock work, and ornamental planting generally; they can be wintered in the house very easily, as they stand the dry atmosphere well, and at the same time are ornamental.

Sanguinea—Long pointed leaves, of a deep red color. Price 25 cents each.
Passiflora Trifasciata.
This very elegant Passion Vine is one of the most unique plants that has been introduced for some time; the ground color of the leaf, which measures four to five inches, is a rosy carmine; the central or variegated portion has three shades—white, rose, and carmine; a desirable addition to any collection of pot plants—should be protected from the hot rays of the sun. Price 30 cents each.

Akebia Quinata.
A climbing plant recently introduced; very hardy, a rapid grower, very pretty foliage, which leaves early; rich plum-colored flowers, pleasantly fragrant. Price 50 cents each.

Rhus Glabra Lasciniata.
A new hardy deciduous shrub, with finely cut and feathered foliage, not unlike large fern leaves, of a glossy green, which changes to purple and brilliant crimson in autumn. Its tropical growth and foliage is entirely different from any other hardy plant, and it is very effective and ornamental. Price, strong plants, $1 each.

Passiflora—Incarnata.
Half-hardy Passion Vine; dies to the ground every winter, but during the summer puts forth shoots twenty to forty feet long, covered with a profusion of beautiful purple flowers. Price 25 cents.

Lemon Verbena.
A favorite shrubby plant, finely lemon scented. Price 25 cents each.
Begonia—Semperflorens—Ever-blooming Begonia.

A fine plant for shady situations, where it will grow about a foot high, with pretty, shining foliage and bright crimson wax-like flowers. Price 25 cents each.

Ageratum—Mexicanum.

A delicate blue tassellated flower, blooming during summer and winter. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Ageratum—Imperial Dwarf.

More dwarf in habit than the preceding, of a deep blue, and a profuse bloomer. Price 20 cents each.

Abutilon Thompsonii.

This beautiful variegated foliage plant has been pronounced one of the prettiest and most noted plants. The ground color of the leaf is a bright green, which is shaded and mottled with yellow, having in many cases quite the appearance of mosaic work. It is of fine growth and easy culture, suitable either for the garden or conservatory. Price 25 cents each.

Nierembergia Frutescens.

This new variety forms a very graceful rounded little plant; its upright stems branching at the top in every direction, and throwing out a profusion of thread-like drooping branchlets, covered from May to October with pretty white and purple flowers of a peculiar and striking character, very pretty and desirable. Price 25 cents each.

Lychnis—Viscaria Plena.

A hardy herbaceous plant with brilliant carmine flowers, blooming in May and June. A most desirable plant. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Artemisia Stellaris.

Owing to the great usefulness of variegated foliage plants, more attention is paid to them, and new varieties are introduced every year. The above is one of the best of those with silver foliage; its stems, branches and leaves are alike covered with silky white hair, giving the plant a charming silvery appearance, making a fine contrast when planted in front of dark Coleus or Achyranthus. It is of free growth, and stands the sun well. Price 25 cents each.

Richardia Alba Maculata.

A plant belonging to the same family as the Calla Ethiopica, with beautifully spotted leaves. The flowers are shaped like those of the Calla, pure white, shaded with violet inside. It is a deciduous plant, requiring to be kept dry in winter, and started like a Dahlia, in the Spring. Small bulbs, price 25 cents each; large flowering bulbs 50 cents each.
Vinca Elegantissima—Variegata.

A beautiful variegated trailing plant; fine for hanging baskets, vases, or the undergrowth of shrubberies. Leaves blotched yellow and green; flowers deep blue. Price 25 cents each.

Cape Jasmine—Gardenia Florida.

Large plants. Price 50 cents each; small plants, 25 cents each.

Nephrodium Exaltatum—Sword Fern.

A pretty Fern, of easy cultivation; the leaves or fronds, which are of a bright green, and produced very numerous, will attain a length of two feet; it will, unlike most other Ferns, stand considerable sun, and is one of the most suitable plants for baskets and vases; it has a peculiar way of reproducing itself by runners, which will, when planted in moss baskets, come through the bottom in all directions and form new plants, thus making it very interesting and beautiful. Price 50 cents each.
Erythrina, or Coral Plant.

The following two varieties are most striking novelties, of robust growth and free blooming habit, and in every way an improvement on the old varieties. They grow about three feet high, and produce their peculiar pea-shaped flowers on long spikes; very desirable.

Coteyana—Rich, brilliant crimson flowers.
Ruberiana—Deep crimson flowers, broader than Coteyana.

Price of young plants, 40 cents each; one year old plants, $1 each.

Salvia Splendens Variegata.

A variegated variety of the famous Scarlet Salvia; growth and flowers are the same as the old kind, leaves variegated and striped with white. It sports considerably, and occasionally has but little of the white on it. Price 30 cents each.

Ivy-Leafed Geranium—L'Elegante.

A very pretty and ornamental variety; foliage bright green, with a broad band of creamy white around each leaf, which is often margined with pink; its pure white blossoms are produced in dense clusters, making it a very effective and most desirable plant. Price 30 cents each.

Erythrina Crista Galli—Coral Plant.

Very ornamental and showy, producing a profusion of deep crimson pea-shaped flowers, on spikes eighteen inches long. May be taken up in the fall and wintered in a dry cellar, like a dahlia, and planted out again in the spring; in bloom nearly all summer. Price of young plants, 30 cents each; 1 year old plants, 75 cents each.
Ivy-Leafed Geranium—\textit{Elegans Floribunda}.

A very elegant variety of Ivy-Leafed Geranium, forming a gracefully drooping growth for suspended baskets, vases, etc. It is of neat habit, producing profusely its lilac-purple flowers—a most beautiful plant. Price 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Ivy-Leafed Geranium—\textit{Brightness}.

Similar in habit to the preceding, but with larger leaf, and bright pink flowers. Price 25 cents each.

\textbf{Macleaya Yedoensis.}

This charming ornamental leaved plant has been recently introduced from Japan. It is a vigorous grower, and attains in one season a height of from four to five feet. The leaves are very large, of a glaucous green, with rosy yellow nervoses on the upper side, and are deeply and elegantly cut. Price 25 cents each.
Caladiums—In Variety.

These are among the finest of ornamental foliage plants; for richness of color, and variety of marking, they are not excelled, if equaled, by any other plant. They grow from one to two feet high, with large shield or heart-shaped leaves, which will in some varieties grow twelve to eighteen inches long by six to nine inches wide, assuming almost every imaginable color in their variegation of spots, veining and marbling—some varieties having leaves nearly all crimson, some spotted, red and white on green ground, others nearly all white, etc. They thrive best when freely supplied with water, and while they stand the sun quite well, they show their colors best when partially shaded at noon. Price 75 cents each; $6 per dozen.

---

Ferns and Lycopods.

These are very desirable for wardian cases and ferneries, for planting on rock work in shady places, for hanging baskets or for the parlor and conservatory.

Price 25 to 50 cents each, according to size and variety. We will send six ferns and six lycopods, our selection of varieties, for $3.
Centaurea Gymnocarpa.

A desirable ornamental leafed plant. It forms a diameter of two feet, making a graceful rounded bush of silvery gray; nothing is so well fitted to contrast in ribbon lines with dark foliage plants. As a plant for hanging baskets, it is also unsurpassed, its drooping fern-like leaves being very effective. Price 25 cents each.

Bouvardias.

Shrubby plants, with racemes of rose, crimson, white and scarlet flowers, blooming during summer, autumn and winter. Their dazzling richness of color and formation of flower make them the most useful plants we have for cut flowers or bouquets in winter.

Bouvardia Davisonii—Fine white.
" Hogarth—Deep carmine.
" Jasminoides—White, fragrant.
" Laura—Light rose.
" Leianthe—Dazzling scarlet.
" The Bride—Delicate pink.

Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Maurandia Barclayana.

Three varieties—purple, pink and white. These are pretty climbing plants with fine foliage and handsome tube-shaped flowers, which are produced abundantly all summer. They will grow five to six feet in one season, and are suitable for a trellis, or hanging baskets and vases. Price 20 cents each; three varieties for 50 cents.

Cobea Scandens Variegata.

A luxuriant growing climber, useful for covering trellises, etc., has large greenish purple bell-shaped flowers; foliage green, delicately shaded and striped with a light silver color. Price 35 cents each.

Anemone Japonica—Alba and Rubra.

Hardy herbaceous plants of great beauty, attaining a height of two feet, flowering in profusion from August to October. Alba, white flowering; Rubra, red flowering. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Libonia—Floribunda.

A neat growing green-house shrub, attaining a height or breadth of twelve or fifteen inches. The flowers, which are about an inch in length, are scarlet orange at the base, running into a deep yellow at the top, in some degree resembling a manettia. It blooms in the greatest profusion from December to May. Price 25 cents each.

Myrsiphillum Asparagoides—Smilax.

* There is no climbing plant in cultivation that surpasses this in the graceful beauty of its foliage, and its peculiar wavy formation renders it one of the most valuable of all plants for vases or hanging baskets, as it can be used either to climb or to droop, as required; in cut flowers, particularly for wreaths, it is now considered indispensable by all florists. Price 25 to 50 cents each.
Delphinium—Formosum.

One of the finest hardy herbaceous plants in cultivation; grows from two to two and one-half feet high; flowers in dense spikes of a most intense blue, with a large white centre, blooming abundantly all summer. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Begonias.

These are fine plants, with showy foliage, in great variety of colors, suitable for planting in baskets or vases in shady situations. The above cut shows some of the striking markings and variegations.

We offer the following as very desirable varieties. Price 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

- Argysostichma
- Inimitable
- Madame Alcardt
- Manicata
- Mrs. Love
- Mrs. R. L. Stewart
- O'Donough

COLUMBUS NURSERY.

Begonias—Flowering Varieties.

While the preceding varieties are grown for their fine foliage, the following are desirable for their flowers; some of them being most abundant bloomers. Price 25 cents each.

Dregii—Pure white flowers; dwarf habit.

Fuscioides Coccinea—Crimson, fuchsia-like flowers.

Glaucophylla Scandens—Orange salmon colored flowers.

Hybrida Multiflora—Rosy pink blossoms.

Nitida Alba—Large trusses of creamy white flowers.

Semperflorens—Crimson wax-like flowers.

Weltoniensis—Waxy-pink blossoms.

---

Astilbe Japonica—Spiraea Japonica.

One of the most beautiful of all hardy herbaceous plants, blooming in dense spikes of pure white feather-like flowers; height of plant one and one-half to two feet. Very valuable for forcing for winter flowers. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Euonymus—Radicans Variegata.
A pretty dwarf and compact growing evergreen shrub from Japan, of neat trailing habit. It grows eight or ten inches high, with shining foliage, variegated with silvery white; quite hardy; very useful for rustic baskets. Price 25 cents each.

Euonymus—Argentea Variegatus.
A more upright growing variety, with large foliage, which is broadly margined with pure white. Price 25 cents each.

Euonymus—Aurea Variegatus.
Similar to preceding, with dark green leaves and deep golden variegation. Price 25 cents each.

Cyclamen Persicum.
As an ornamental green-house plant, it is excelled by few, and its flowers as an ingredient in the formation of bouquets and baskets of cut flowers in winter, are not surpassed. Price 50 cents each.

Abutilon—Mesopotamicum.
A pretty plant of spreading habit, growing from two to three feet in diameter, with bell-shaped flowers about an inch long, scarlet at the calix, with yellow petals; suitable for rustic baskets and vases. Price 25 cents each.
Tritoma—Uvaria.

Very showy, late flowering, half-hardy herbaceous plant, lily-like foliage and tall stems, producing magnificent terminal spikes of dark red and orange-tinted flowers; requires a slight covering in winter. Price 30 cents each.

---

Tritoma—Grandis.

Similar to preceding, but of stronger habit, and somewhat taller flower and stem. Price 30 cents each.
Lobelia Speciosa.

A pretty little plant of dwarf habit, with fine slender branches, particularly adapted for vases and baskets. Flowers deep blue; a profuse bloomer, and of easy culture. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Apple-Scented Geranium.

A variety of Geranium of low bushy growth, with a delicious spicy apple-like fragrance; one of the best of the fragrant class. Price, fine strong plants, 25 cents each.

Kenilworth Ivy.

Beautiful delicate foliage, with small pink flowers; trailing plant; very appropriate for baskets. Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Double Tuberoses—All-Flowering Roots.

These much esteemed flowers are unsurpassed for elegance, purity of color and delightful fragrance. In order to give my customers the utmost chance in their cultivation, I offer none but strictly first-class roots this season. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Nierembergia—Gracilis.

A pretty little bedding plant of spreading habit, with narrow leaves and pale blue cup-shaped flowers, about an inch in diameter; blooming abundantly all summer. Price 25 cents each.

Nierembergia—Alba Grandiflora.

Same as preceding, with pure white flowers. Price 25 cents each.
Japan Gold Striped Honeysuckle.
A splendid growing variety, with gold-veined leaves, suitable for baskets and vases. Price 25 cents each; extra size plants, 50 cents each.

Cuphea—Platycentra.
Scarlet pendulous flowers; neat, compact habit; continuous blooming. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.
Variegated Rose Geranium—Lady Plymouth.

This is a variety of the old favorite, rose-scented, with silver variegated leaves, of vigorous compact habit; a very beautiful and fragrant variety. Price 35 cents each.

Tigridia.

A genus of Mexican bulbs, producing flowers of the most exquisite beauty, the flowers large, about four inches across, of singularly curious shape, and the color of each variety gorgeous and purely contrasted. No flower can exceed it in beauty; in bloom from July to October. In autumn take up the bulbs and keep them in a dry place, away from frost, until the time for planting in the spring. One and one-half feet.

Tigridia Conchiflora—Orange and golden yellow, spotted with black.

Pavonia—Richest scarlet, tinged and spotted with pure yellow.

Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Colocasia (Caladium) Esculentum.

One of the most beautiful and striking of the Ornamental Foliage Plants in cultivation, either for culture in large pots or tubs, or for planting upon the lawn. It will grow in any garden soil, and is of the easiest culture. When of full size it stands five feet high, with immense leaves, often measuring four feet in length by two and one-half in breadth, very smooth, of a light green color, beautifully grained and variegated with dark green. Grows best when well supplied with water. Price 40 cents each.

Shrubby Calceolarias.

Pretty summer blooming plants, growing about twelve inches high, with various colored bag-shaped flowers. We have this season a fine lot of seedlings, comprising the different varieties of yellow, chestnut, brown and crimson, splashed and spotted. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Pelargoniums.

A very fine assortment. We do not describe them, as the variety of Pelargonium is now so varied and extensive. Price 40 cents each; $4 per dozen.

Lysimachia Numularia—Moneywort.

This old and well known plant is indispensable for drooping around the edges of baskets or vases, its graceful trailing stems often falling four feet from the edges of the basket or vase. It is attractive at all times, but particularly so in June, when covered with rich yellow flowers. Price 20 cents each.

Begonia Hybrida Multiflora.

A very fine free flowering Begonia, blooming continually during the winter months. It is of remarkable neat and compact growth, with small, ovate, glossy leaves, producing graceful drooping racemes of rosy pink blossoms. Price 25 cents each.

German or Parlor Ivy—Mikania Scandens.

A strong growing climber, with green foliage; suitable for large baskets and vases. Price 20 cents each.
Winter Blooming Fuchsia—Speciosa.

A well-known variety, producing large flowers, two inches in length, tube and sepals blush, corolla bright crimson; of very free blooming habit: a single plant of this variety, grown in an eight or a nine inch pot, may produce 300 to 500 flowers from December to May. Price 25 cents each.

Pampas Grass—Gynerium Argenteum.

We can not recommend this plant too highly. Although but a grass of gigantic growth, it makes one of the most desirable plants for garden decoration. On well-established plants, its long, narrow leaves, which are produced in abundance, curl elegantly at the height of three to five feet, and the flower spikes, resembling plumes of white feathers, grow upon slender stems clear above the foliage. The plant improves much in size, with age. Being a native of South America, it is not hardy where the thermometer falls below zero, and should be protected with straw or leaves against cold or wet in winter. Price 50 cents each.
Hedera—Evergreen Ivy.

Fine for growing in suspended baskets. The plain green variety being quite hardy, will grow well out of doors, and is valuable for covering walls having a northern or western exposure, as it will cling to a wall readily. Price 25 to 50 cents each.

- Canariensis—Large plain leaf.
- Cavendishii—Leaves edged with white.
- Maculata Angustifolia—Neatly spotted white and green; very distinct and pretty.
- Maculata Aurea—Variegated with golden yellow.
- Marginata Argenta—Silver margin; free habit.
- Marmorata—Very robust growth; young leaves beautifully margined, green and white.
- Rhombea Variegata—Small leaves, having fine silver margin; distinct.
Gnaphalium Argenteum.

This silver-foliage plant has no equal for edging of beds, walks, or flower borders, and is also a great acquisition to our list of plants for vases and baskets, as by its free growth, it may, with little pinching of the tips, be grown into any desirable shape. Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Coleus—Chameleon.

This is a beautiful and distinct variety. The ground color of the leaf is carmine pink, splashed with dark maroon, the edges fringed with yellow. Every leaf is shaded different, and no two leaves exactly alike can hardly ever be found on the same plant. For situations which are partly shaded against the direct rays of the sun at noon, there can be no plant more brilliantly colored than this. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.
Acorns Gramineus Variegata.
A pretty grass-like plant, with long, narrow leaves, banded their entire length with bright yellow. Very useful for ferneries, baskets, etc. Price 25 cents each.

Myosotis Palustris—True Forget-me-not.
A hardy herbaceous plant, with light blue flowers in clusters; very pretty; does best in a shady place, with good supply of water. Price 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Salvia Officinalis Tricolor.
A great acquisition to our hardy ornamental plants, similar in habit to the common Sage, but of dwarfer growth, with the young leaves broadly margined with bright pink, reddish, changing to yellow and white; well adapted for edging, very ornamental, highly esteemed in Europe. Price 25 cents each.

Convalaria Majalis—Lily of the Valley.
A hardy plant, growing ten to twelve inches high, producing in May, spikes of small bell shaped flowers of the most delightful fragrance. It is of the easiest culture, and as it prefers shade, grows best when planted under large shrubs or on the north side of buildings. Price 25 cents each.
Achillea.

Achillea Milifolia Rubra—Bright carmine.

" Ptarmica Plena—Pure white.

" Tomentosa—Golden yellow.

Very desirable hardy herbaceous plants, flowering throughout the summer months. Price 25 cents each; the three varieties for 50 cents.

---

Variegated Geranium—Mrs. Pollock.

A magnificent variety; the green leaf discs, overlaid by a beautiful bronze red zone, banded with bright red crimson, and outwardly margined with golden yellow, Price 30 cents each.
Select English Pansies.

From the finest named sorts; large size, fine formed, and finely marked flowers. Price 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Dielytra Spectabilis.

This beautiful plant increases in popularity every year, and is certainly one of the finest herbaceous plants in cultivation. Delicate green leaves and long elegant sprays of most beautiful heart-shaped pink flowers, edged with silvery white. Price, strong flowering plants, 25 cents each.

Violets.

Neapolitan—Double blue, very fragrant.
The Czar—Rich bluish purple, large and fragrant; single.
Queen of Whites—Double white, fragrant.

Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Koniga Maritima-Variegata—Variegated Sweet Alyssum.

A pretty little plant with green and white striped leaves, and small trusses of white, fragrant flowers; it is of creeping habit, equally well suited for edging beds and planting in baskets and vases. Price 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Eupatorium Reparium.

A valuable winter blooming plant, blooming from December to March; flowers pure white, borne in corymbs three inches in diameter, of a shape most valuable for bouquets and baskets of flowers. Price 25 cents each.
VERBENAS.

Verbenas.

Well known, charming and universally admired plants. We know of none that will give greater satisfaction. The Verbenas delights in new soil. Change the beds annually, or, when this is not convenient, dig holes a foot or more wide and deep; fill with fresh loam—(sandy loam, enriched with well decomposed manure and old sods, is best). Our stock this season is very large and the plants are in fine, healthy condition. Plants we send out will be well established, and will bear transportation to any part of the country. Price, 10 cents each; $1 per dozen; $5 per 100, our selection.

One of the most valued of plants, either for decoration of the flower garden in summer, or for the green-house or parlor in winter. The flowers are of nearly every shade and marking, most of them delightfully fragrant. For the formation of winter bouquets, it is perhaps, the most valuable of all flowers, as it continues in bloom from October until April. Ready 1st of March. Price 25 cents each, except where noted; $2.50 per dozen.

Attraction—White, striped with maroon.
Betsy—Brilliant scarlet.
Butterfly—Orange and buff, flacked with purple.
Covent Garden Scarlet—Bright scarlet.
Defiance—Large, deep crimson.
La Belle—Finest white; new. 50 cents.
La Purite—Bright carmine; extra fine.

---

Louise Lenoir—Dark maroon.
Meteor—Dazzling red, perfect form.
Marine—Fine white.
Othello—Dark purplish crimson.
Pres. Degrave—Pure white, abundant bloomer.
Radetzky—Rose, violet purple stripes.
Alonsa—Grandiflora.
A pretty plant of compact habit, growing from twelve to eighteen inches high, with shell-shaped flowers; bright crimson, with nearly black centre, and a free bloomer. Price 25 cents each.

Flea—Muscosa.
A pretty little plant, resembling the tree moss in appearance; grows about eight inches high, with very small green leaves, and minute pink blossoms, which are produced all over the plant; its graceful drooping habit makes it a desirable plant for vases and hanging baskets. Price 25 cents each.

Evergreen Candytuft—Iberis Tenoreana.
A pretty little hardy plant, resembling the well-known annual Candytuft in flower, but being evergreen; stands out in winter without protection; bushy and compact, growing about nine inches high, and covered with flowers in June. Price 25 cents each.

Double White Chinese Primrose.
One of the most useful plants for winter and early spring blooming; flowers pure white, perfectly double, in bloom from November till May, during which time a strong plant will often times produce as many as 500 flowers. Price 50 to 75 cents each.

Abutilon—Striatum.
A pretty plant with bell-shaped flowers, yellow, veined with orange. A free bloomer, growing three to five feet high. Price 25 cents.

Coleus—Enchantress.
A quite new and beautiful variety. It is the style of "Queen Victoria," but more richly marked. The centre of each leaf is bright crimson, with dark shading, while the edge is broadly margined with golden yellow. The Coleus family is sensitive to cold, and plants can not be sent out safely before April, except a very short distance. Price 25 cents each.

French Hybrid Gladiolus.
The great variety attained in this most beautiful class during the last few years, is, perhaps, more surprising than of any other class in cultivation. To those unacquainted with the Gladiolus, we would say that it is of the easiest cultivation—never failing to bloom abundantly. The flowers, in spikes of from nine to fifteen inches in length, combine the leading colors—scarlet, rose, white, orange, crimson, yellow, etc., with every conceivable shade and style of marking. Our stock this spring is large, and assortment very good. Price, fine named sorts, 25 to 50 cents each; $2 to $3 per dozen.

Vinca Rosea and Alba.
Plants growing about eighteen inches high, and blooming constantly, bearing a profusion of star-shaped flowers. Price 25 cents each.

Alba—Pure white, delicate pink centre.
Rosea—Deep rose color, dark centre.
CATALOGUE OF THE

Hydrangea Hortensis.
A handsome shrubby plant, of dwarf habit, with large clusters of flowers, which resemble the flowers of the snow-ball, only being much larger, and of a lively pink color, with lilac tinge; does best in a shady place; will live out of doors over winter, with a slight protection. Price, 25 cents each; extra large plants, 50 cents each.

Hydrangea Otaska.
A new variety from Japan, with large, beautiful, glossy leaves, and immense heads of flowers; white, shaded with pink. Price 25 cents each; extra large plants, 50 cents each.

Hydrangea Rosea Alba.
Similar in habit to the H. Hortensis, flowers white, slightly shaded with rose in opening, then change to deep red. Price 25 cents each; extra large plants, 50 cents each.

Canna, or Indian Shot Plant.
The Cannas are stately and highly ornamental plants, growing from four to seven feet high, with large, broad foliage, terminated with racemes of showy yellow, crimson, or scarlet flowers. Should be taken up in the fall and wintered in the cellar.

COLUMBUS NURSERY.

Hardy White Rose—Madame Plantier.

We wish to call special attention to this beautiful White Rose. It is one of the most hardy Roses we have; the plant grows in a very fine bushy form, and its pure double white flowers are produced in the greatest abundance in June; a most desirable Rose for cemetery or garden. Price, strong plants, 40 cents each.

Yellow Rose—Marechal Niel. (Noisette.)

The most beautiful of any yellow flowered; bright golden yellow, full double flower, free blooming, fine form, petals large and of great substance; a Noisette of healthy and vigorous growth. It will be a good Rose, fine for bedding, and useful climber. In Northern latitudes it will require protection during winter. See cut page 4. Price 75 cents each.

Tea Rose—Bon Silene.

An old sort, but now attracting much attention; it is a true Tea Rose, having the delicious odor of that class; the color is peculiarly bright, but of a shade difficult to describe; a blending of purple and carmine; with the slightest shade of orange; it is a valuable variety for forcing for winter flowers. Price 40 cents each.

Tea Rose—Devoniensis.

A superb variety of Tea Rose; of the most delicious fragrance. Color delicate creamy white, with centre softly shaded with yellow; it produces splendid buds. Price 40 cents each.

Resembles the Centaurea in its downy white foliage, but with finer and more deeply cut leaves and stronger growth. Price 25 cents each.

Yucca Recurva.
Sometimes called Yucca Pendula. Considering its graceful and noble habit, this is doubtless the best of all the hardy Yuccas, and being ornamental during the whole year, is invaluable in every garden. Price $1.50 each.
Chinese Hibiscus.

A class of shrubby green-house plants, with deep green glossy foliage, and large showy flowers, produced freely all summer. They may be planted out in late spring, but at the approach of cold weather must be taken up, and kept in conservatory, or house during winter. Price, small plants, 25 cents each; large plants, 50 cents each.

Cooperii Tricolor—This variety is mostly grown for its variegated foliage, the young shoots having all shades of color, from pure white to deep red, and various shades of green; flowers single crimson.

Double Crimson—Deep crimson flowers, very double.

Double Yellow—Large double yellow flowers, having crimson centre.

Single Crimson—Very large single flowers, often four inches in diameter; brilliant crimson; although the flowers are single, it is the best and most showy of the whole family.

Deutzia Crenata Flora Plena.

A very pretty hardy shrub, imported within the last few years; it has double white bell-shaped flowers, which are produced in clusters three to four inches long, all over the plant in late spring—neat and attractive. Price 50 cents each.

Deutzia Gracillis.

An old, yet one of the prettiest hardy shrubs of small size in cultivation; of dwarf, compact habit, with slender branches and small leaves; growing in neat, compact shape, it never exceeds two and a half to three feet in height, making it very desirable for small gardens, or where tall growing shrubs are objectionable. In May it is completely covered with trusses of pure white blossoms, which bear a close resemblance to the Lily of the Valley. Price 50 cents each.

The old variety has been some years known as one of the finest summer flowering shrubs; this is similar, but with white flowers, and most desirable. Price 50 cents each.
HOW TO TAKE CARE OF PLANTS WHEN RECEIVED.

When we send plants to distant points, by express, they are, with very few exceptions, taken from pots, to save expressage. Upon receipt, they should be carefully unpacked, leaving as much of the soil attached to the roots as possible. If the plants should be so thoroughly rooted as to make one compact matting of roots, the ball may be loosened, and a portion, say one-fourth of the outside fibrous roots, removed. This is essential, whether for garden or pot culture, and will insure a more certain and vigorous growth.

If intended for pot culture, they should be repotted, in pots one size larger than they have been grown in, should be shaded and watered sparingly, for eight or ten days, until they begin to make new roots, when they may be watered more freely and exposed to full sunlight. If for garden culture, and danger of frost has passed, they may be planted at once; the beds should be well loosened, and the plants placed a little deeper than they have been in pots. After pressing the soil gently about the ball, give a thorough watering, and if the weather is bright, shading a few days may be necessary.

Plants sent by mail will require more careful attention, as a large portion of the soil has to be removed in packing, and after a number of days of close confinement, are more sensitive to bright sunlight, and should not, therefore, be exposed to the direct rays of the sun. They should be treated as before mentioned, but by no means kept in a dark place, as shading in all cases should only be a protection against bright sunshine, and not against light.

BULBOUS FLOWER ROOTS.

A collection of the best Dutch Bulbs, Hyacinths, Tulips, Crocus, etc., etc., imported annually, and can be forwarded from the first of September.

Gold Fish and Plants for Aquaria.

Ferns, Lycopodiums, etc., for Wardian Cases.

Bouquets, Cut Flowers and Floral Decorations for Parties, Weddings, Suppers, etc.

Wreaths, Crosses, Anchors, and other appropriate designs for Funerals, arranged in the best style; and can be sent by express any reasonable distance with perfect safety.

"The writer has, during the last five or six years, purchased largely from the Columbus Nursery, and takes pleasure in bearing testimony to the promptness and fidelity with which all his orders have been filled."—Commercial, Louisville, Ky.

"We have annually, for several years past, purchased from him, and have no hesitancy in recommending him to our readers, as perfectly reliable."—Statesman, Lexington, Ky.

"One of the most widely and favorably-known Nurseries in the country."—Country Gentleman, Albany, N. Y.

"Thorough, deep and clean culture is the rule here, and the consequence is stock of the first-quality."—Journal, Indianapolis, Ind.

"The Columbus Nursery is situated on South High Street, a short distance south of the Street Railroad terminus. It is the most extensive in the State, and the most complete. It is a beautiful place, with its acres of evergreens, flowers, beautiful trees, and its pleasant walks, and we wonder not that it is much visited.

"About 300,000 apple grafts are planted annually; pears, cherries, peaches, plums and other fruits are grown largely, and there are acres of evergreens and deciduous trees for the street and lawn.

"The growing of roses is made a specialty. There are on the place *six greenhouses, over 10,000 feet of glass being used for propagating purposes. In these greenhouses are every variety of flowers, from the simplest to the most prized. Shrubs in great variety, grapes and small fruits, including all the old as well as the new varieties, make an attractive feature of the grounds.

"During the busy season there are employed on the grounds about sixty persons. The trade extends to all parts of Ohio, and to West Virginia, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, and as far west as Nebraska."—State Journal, Columbus, Ohio.

*Three new green-houses have been erected recently, making nine now in use.
